

CCIIF CCFI - Over 225 People to "Transtech5" Conference. A Great Success.

29 October

Ilan Cohen-Friedman | France-Israel

STORY FIRST EDITION. French was heard loud and clear in the building of the Recanati School of Business at the University of Tel Aviv yesterday morning. Slowly and surely academics, researchers, lawyers, consultants, journalists, diplomats, bankers, students, artists, experts circulating in the premises of the University of Tel Aviv. The reason?

On Tuesday, October 28, at the initiative of Dr. Daniel Ruach, Professor ESCP Europe and Chairman of the CCIIF(Tel Aviv) and Amos Ron of CCIIF took place (in English) great TRANSTECH5 conference on transfer technology and financial technologies.

Event organized by Yvon Maier (Director CCIIF) and Talia Adjiman (Career Center CCIIF) with the team of CCIIF(Yael, Leslie, Ilana, Marvin, Dylan, Remy, Jeremy, Raphael) Chamber of Commerce Israel-France . The CCFIFrance was represented by Odelia Bohbot. Many sponsors have supported this initiative. In the clean room at the University 40 high-level speakers presented their experiences.

At the event, held in total cooperation with the Embassy of France, ESCP Europe and the University of Tel Aviv, conferences were held concurrently around 9 panels and fifty speakers high level. The event brought together all day yesterday over 225 participants.

IsraelValley PLUS

Press (Excerpts) Yvon Maier (Director CCIIF). "In the presence of Pierre Mourlevat, Lionel Corre, Anne Bae UbiFrance, the Embassy of France, the conference" TransTech5 "on financial technology and technology transfer was completed yesterday at the University of Tel Aviv. More than 225 representatives of French and Israeli companies participated in various sessions of the conference, which brought together more than 40 top-level speakers.

Chamber of Commerce Israel-France welcomes this success that perpetuates its constant work of reconciliation between the French and Israeli communities. We thank our sponsors for their support: Orange Chamber of Commerce France-Israel Webit-Card, Bank Hapoalim, and especially IsraelValley firm KGA .

Thank you to our partners, Dan Catarivas (Industry Association), Edouard Cukierman (GO4Israel), the University of Tel Aviv and its Dean Professor Moshe Zviran, ESCP Europe, the Embassy of France in Israel Challengy, The Hive by Gvachim, Vatel and the MIT Enterprise Forum.

Thank you to the moderators of the various panels of the conference, François Ponthieu (KGA), David Harari (French-Israeli High Council for Science and Technology), Anne Baer (Embassy of France), Patricia Engel (The Hive), Tamara Saraga (M & A and strategy consultant), Avner Barnea (Israeli Forum of Competitive Intelligence), Dina Beer (Israeli Internet Association), Sigal Caspi (Walla Shops) and Yariv Leski (Conor Holdings).

<http://www.israelvalley.com/news/2014/10/29/44841/cciif-ccfi-plus-de-225-personnes-a-la-conference-transtech5-un-grand-succes>